New-York, October 12, 1767. 93

New-York, September 29, 1767.
To be peremptorily Sold, at Public Vendue, for either Cash or Bills of Exchange, on Thursday the 22d of October, next, at 12 o'clock, at the Coffee-House,

VALUABLE Ninety-nine Years

Lease of two very large Lots and a Half of College Ground, adjoining the North-River, near King's-College, New-York, being two Center Lots, and Corner Lots, and improved with a new substantial large well built Brick House very neat, with very great Conveniences, and with three elegant Fronts, elevated and situate on Streets and Corner Lots, in such a regular delightful Manner, that no future Improvements will interrupt either of its Fronts, nor its beautiful Prospects.—The whole Plan is truly Modern, and is after a double or a single House, extremely warm in Winter, and exceeding cool in Summer, and is three Stories high, besides excellent Cellars under the whole Building, which, from two Feet is continued a Brick and a Half thick all round quite up to the Wall Plate: It is erected on the best and strongest Dimensions, being 50 Feet by 37 Feet 4 Inches, and is built with very extraordinary strong Mortar, and with two Sorts of the strongest and largest Bricks, picked out at a great deal of Trouble and Expence: The Roof is framed and dove-tailed together on the new Model, for Strength and Service, by which Method the whole Weight of its roof perpendicular on the Walls which cannot spread. The Walls are likewise firmly braced together at every Storey, by a late ingenious Contrivance. Every Part is done in the strongest Manner by the best Workmen, all by the Day, under a very industrious careful Inspection. The Foundations are laid deep, two Feet wide on Clay and Loam, spreading 14 Feet wide, without-side the Walls, and 16 Feet within the Walls, which stand exceeding firm & exact, proved by repeated Surveys of each Corner of the Building, &c. and which also proves the Foundations to be uncommonly solid. The College Lots, particularly these next the Water, are very valuable, and on very easy Ground Rent, and the above two Lots and a Half are nearly as large as 3 Lots of the same Ground, consequently they are but a trifle more than half the common Ground Rent, being in the outermost Lines of the Whole 182 Feet and 160 Feet by 54 Feet 10 Inches, and 50 Feet, exclusive of the Streets. They are also in the Center of very promising improvements: The Ninety-nine Years Lease of the above Lots, is worth a large Estate, and it is esteemed by a real Experience to be as fine Air, and as pleasant healthy a Situation as any in the World, and both a Spring of very excellent Fresh Water near the Middle of the Lots. On each Side of the House is Room for spacious Gardens, &c. and the whole inclosed with a good and strong Fence.—In making the above substantial large Improvements, with levelling the Lots, and levelling my Part of the Streets, and making 77 Feet of Water Fence, no Pains nor Expences was spared, for it was not any of it improved with the least Intentions of Sale. But some very material and very advantageous Business, calls me to England, with my Family, quite unexpectedly. The Premises may be surveyed and viewed at any Time to the Day of Sale: For further Particulars enquire of

SAMUEL SPENCER SKINNER.

N. B. If any Person have any Demands against me, they are requested to call on me, living near the above Premises for Payment.
A large and complete Set of Stills and Worms, and all other Utensils for distilling of Rum and Cordials, quite new, and imported on the best Terms with ready Money, will be sold at Prime Cost, after selling the above: ALSO, a Quantity of very old Rum and Cordials in Hogheads and Barrels, with Anniseeds and other Seeds for Cordials, and Juniper-Berries, all in Quantities:—
—LIKEWISE, A new one-Horse-Chair, being a very beautiful painted new Pattern with a handsome convenient Fore-Seat, and an excellent Chair-Horse young and strong.

TO BE LET.

THE House in which Mrs. Tingley now lives, on Rotten-Row.

TO be sold for no Fault, a very good Wench, 22 Years old; with a Child eighteen Months old. Enquire of the Printer.

WHEREAS the partnership of John

Shaw, carrier, deceased, and George Shaw, Tanner, both of the city of New-York) ended by the death of the aforesaid John Shaw; and whereas the executors of his last will and testament, did advertise in the New-York Mercury, for all the debtors to said partnership, to pay off their respective balances, to enable them to close said partnership, and have waited since the date of said advertisement, which was published in March 1765, and little or no regard has been paid to the same.

This is to give notice to all concerned, that I the subscriber will take such methods as the law directs for the recovery of the same, unless they come in 14 days from this date, and pay off those balances, that I may settle the partnership.

To the Inhabitants of the Town of BOSTON.
GENTLEMEN,

THE present state of the British dominions in America, and particularly of this province, calls aloud for our most serious attention. We are each of us deeply interested in the events of the present important period; and since we are embarked in one common cause, let us banish all discord from amongst ourselves. It is with pain that I remark the decrease of mutual confidence and harmony amongst the inhabitants of this metropolis: Men, who were a few months past connected together by the pleasing ties of love and friendship, are now totally estranged from each other; our unhappy situation has led us, perhaps, sometimes to suspect the innocent, only because they happen in some circumstances to differ from us in their sentiments. Our opinions may in some sense be said to be part of our constitution. Those who have a natural firmness and intrepidity will take a shorter and more daring method to accomplish their purposes; and from their sanguine temperament, will unavoidably adopt such measures as cannot obtain the approbation of those who are habitually timid and irresolute: but nevertheless both may be true friends to their country, and both may, tho' by different means, be striving to bring about the same laudable designs. This contrariety, if we could sometimes divest ourselves of those prejudices (which to speak plainly, are most predominant in narrow minds) might be made productive of a most happy medium. Let me therefore recommend it to you, my fellow citizens, to convene yourselves together, and dispassionately to consult the Good of your country; throw away suspicion, which when once indulged, will certainly be confirmed by circumstances in themselves altogether trivial. Our country has without doubt been greatly misrepresented to the British ministry and parliament. May those who have done it, repent, reform, and obtain forgiveness from God and man.

Our business is to take a view of our present situation, and to apply the best remedies to our disordered state, which our united prudence can suggest.—We are at present engaged in a trade with Great-Britain which annually carries off, at the least one third more of silver and gold, than we are able by our utmost efforts to bring into the country in the present circumscribed state of our commerce with other places. The British parliament, we hear have thought fit further to burthen us with an additional tax upon several articles which we import from the mother country. Now it is plain that the most tame submission to these taxations can never answer the ends proposed by the parliament, namely, to raise a revenue from our toil and industry, to support officers independent of the people, in affluence and grandeur; for the balance being so greatly against us, the trade cannot possibly be of long continuance.—A constant draining of our money, without a sufficient source of new supplies, will inevitably bring us to a state of bankruptcy: And I cannot but believe, that all knowing men will, from this consideration, as well as from humanity and love of justice, refuse appointments upon this establishment: nay further, I am encouraged to hope they will faithfully represent to their friends in G. B. the certain pernicious consequences of such measures. Sure I am, that they will act unwisely in losing this opportunity of doing such important service to the mother country, and of endearing themselves to the distressed inhabitants of these colonies.

I cannot avoid taking notice at this time of the declining state even of those few branches of business in which our labourers were some years past employed; particularly the shipbuilding business has been greatly injured of late, by the imprudent exportation of lumber; this town feels the ill consequences of this folly, hundreds who were usefully employed, are now deprived of the means of obtaining a support by honest industry, and are therefore exposed to those vices, which are the common attendants of idleness and want.—The importation of English refined sugar has likewise greatly discouraged the manufacturing of sugar in this country.—I might instance in several other kinds of manufactures which we have unwisely forced out of our own hands; and though there may be some temporary advantages to private persons concerned in these ruinous exportations and superfluous importations, yet as we live one by another, we must all soon feel the misfortunes that attend a general decay of business, and declension of industry. I would therefore modestly advise, that we immediately come into a determination to use as few foreign manufactures as possible; and that we encourage, by every means, the manufacturing those articles, on the importation of which heavy taxes are laid.—And I would have this done not from a desire of revenging the injury done us, by the laying on of those burthensome duties, but from a full conviction of the necessity of such a procedure.

Permit me to point out several branches of business which I think you may immediately engage in, which will be advantageous to the undertakers, and also a means of employing some of your industrious poor, who had much rather be put into a capacity of earning a subsistence, than receive it from your bounty.

Particularly the manufacturing of Glass; the process is easily understood, and we have all the materials within ourselves. A glass-house erected in this town would be nearly paid for by the value which would be given for the broken glass, which now is thrown about, as a nuisance to the town. Many kinds of hard ware may be made as good, and if a large quantity was required, would be as cheap as can be imported from G. Britain.—Large quantities of cordage may be made, and as Hemp of our own growth is annually increasing, an encouragement may be given to the manufacturing of duck and other hempen cloth. Painters oyls and colours may also be prepared amongst us in quantities sufficient, and probably in a short time much cheaper than can be imported. To be brief, every day would, if we were once in earnest, furnish new fields for industry, which is the true basis of public affluence and felicity, and the nurse of freedom. If the above hints are regarded, and the measures pointed out vigorously resolved upon, I will venture to foretell that Great Britain will soon be convinced that Americans were not made to be her slaves.

Your's,
CONCILIATOR.

WARSAW, July 1.

THE report that the several confederacies in this kingdom had united under one Marshal-General is premature; but this event will have place as soon as some particular Marshals, who are expected at Radom, arrived there. In the mean time a body of Russian troops, with a large train of artillery, is cantoned around the place, in order to preserve the public tranquillity, and protect the deputies of the confederacy. Two of those belonging to Lithuania, arrived here within these few days, one of whom is young Prince Radzivil, Marshal of the confederacy of Brzescer. They have presented Prince Repnin, envoy from the Court of Russia, with the acts of the general confederacy, superbly bound in velvet, and at the same time addressed to him a discourse, in which they recommended the confederates still more to the protection of the Emperors.

Pelish, Prussia, July 2. The confederations of Dissidents have received most gracious answers to the letters which they wrote to the Kings of Sweden, Denmark, and Prussia; and their Majesties have assured them of their protection.

Paris, July 17. The day before yesterday a report prevailed, that the Court has sent orders to the King's troops in Corsica to quit that isle immediately, and return to France; an order issued, it is said, out of resentment to the government of Genoa, for having refused the Spanish vessels permission to land the Jesuits in that island.

Boulogne, July 20. They write from Spain, that the ministry were taken up with affairs of the utmost importance; that the Marquis de Ossun, Ambassador from France, having received an express from his Court, immediately communicated his dispatches to the King. They add, that his Catholic Majesty had sent his commissary of war and marine to Bastia, in Corsica, in order to establish magazines there for the subsistence of the Jesuits.

Leghorn, July 10. We learn from Corsica, that the banished Jesuits from Spain have at length been admitted into that island; and that according to a convention made with General Paoli, those fathers will replace the French troops in the places still held by the Genoese.

Florence, June 20. Letters from Rome, say, that the Cardinals are greatly divided in their opinions with respect to the manner in which the Pope ought to treat the Jesuits.

Lisbon, June 30. The 27th of this month, two ships of war, with three transports, furnished by the Fernambucco company, sailed from hence for Lagos, in order to take on board there two regiments of foot, which are marched to that place from Alentejo. General Bohm is to be their commander in chief, and Colonel Tonfk, a Swede, is to be at the head of the engineers. The report which prevailed, that this expedition is intended to drive the Jesuits out of Paraguay, still continues; and as the two other vessels belonging to Fernambucco remain here, it is imagined they will land their other troops, by way of re-inforcement to the said regiments.

LONDON,

July 18. Yesterday morning an experiment of a new machine for the preservation of lives at fires, was put in practice from the two pair of stairs window, at the fountain tavern, Ludgate-hill. A large hempen sack, or bag, capable of holding two grown persons, or four children, is fastened tight to a strong rope, the bottom of which was fixed to a post on the opposite side of the way, and the top to a pulley, at the upper end of the window; when, by means of another rope, about thirty several persons were let down into the street, without running the least hazard, in less than five minutes: the moment the persons are taken out, the sack is drawn up again instantly.

We hear that a noble Earl has formed a plan for settling a new administration, on such a footing as will be unexceptionable to the public.

We hear his Royal Highness the Duke of York, before his return to England, intends to pay a visit to the celebrated Paoli, chief of the Corsicans.

We hear her Majesty is four months advanced in her pregnancy.

By private letters received from merchants in Lisbon, by their correspondents here, there is advice, that fresh causes of dispute, or pretently so, have been for some time so frequent, that notwithstanding all endeavours the court of Lisbon have used to bring about a final issue thereto, they have proved ineffectual, and that in consequence thereof, no less than a speedy open rupture is shortly expected.

July 21. They write from Corsica, that Paoli has summoned a general assembly of the states of that island, for the 28th of this month, on affairs of the greatest importance.

We hear some late unjustifiable proceedings of the French and Spaniards, in the West-Indies, have occasioned some representations to be made by our ambassadors, at their respective courts; the answers to which have been transmitted to his Majesty's Secretaries of State, and are said to be very favourable towards a speedy redress of those grievances.

July 23. They advise from Marseilles, that among the French subjects lately released from captivity in the Morocco dominions, was one Claude de Bart, a native of Provence, aged 103, who had been in slavery upwards of 70 years.

They write from Madeira, that some packets of great consequence were lately seized there, by the Portuguese governor, on board a vessel that touched at that island, bound to South-America, by which it was said, farther lights had been obtained concerning the intrigues and strength of the Jesuits in that part of the world.

We hear that orders are given for thoroughly inspecting and repairing all the capital ships of war in this kingdom, and to report the state and condition of them to the Lords of the Admiralty.

It is now said that the Duke of Grafton and Lord Gower are to be Secretaries of State; and that the Marquis of Rockingham is to be at the Head of the Treasury.

Lord Cambden, it is said, will be appointed President of the Council; and the Hon. Mr. York, Lord High Chancellor.

July 25. According to the last letters from Tetuan, the French ambassador paid 300,000 dollars for the ransom of the French slaves at that place, and delivered a present, of 20,000l. value, to the Emperor of Morocco, with whom he has concluded a peace for twenty years.

The Spanish ambassador at the same court, made also a valuable present, paid down 100,000l. and delivered up 320 Moorish slaves, who were prisoners in Spain, on concluding the peace with the Emperor.

The Venetian ambassador paid down 50,000 chequins, and a large present, value of 10,000l. on concluding a peace with the Emperor.

The Swedish and Danish ambassadors are arrived likewise in the port of Salee, with their usual presents.

Two large Danish ships are arrived at Salee, from Constantinople, laden with ammunition, and large metal guns, sent as a present from the Grand Signior to the Emperor.

A Dutch man of war, with the Moorish ambassador from the States, arrived with a valuable present.

A Tripoline ambassador arrived also, with a present from the Bashaw to the Emperor.

Last Saturday died at Carmichael, in Scotland, John Carmichael, Earl of Hyndford, Lord Carmichael and Baronet, a Lord of the Privy Council, Commissioner of the Police, and Vice Admiral of Scotland, also one of the 16 Peers, and a Knight of the ancient Order of the Thistle.

We are informed, that the arrival of the storeship from Port Egmont, confirms the late accounts of a gigantic people inhabiting the shores of the Magellan straits.

Some letters from Lisbon mention, that advice had been received there, of the Jesuits of Paraguay, having spirited up the inhabitants of the colony of St. Sacramento to an insurrection.

July 28. 'Tis assured that a noble M——s, in a late conference held at N——e House, did very honourably insist and persevere in his patriotic and consistent determination, of routing out of the Ad——n every spark of the —— of ——'s influence. This has only suspended, but not totally frustrated, the execution of that salutary plan, which the three great parties met to settle.

We hear that one of our East-India ships lately arrived, fell in with a pyrate ship in the Chinese sea, the commander of which was an Englishman: he was manned with blacks, and was cruising against the Dutch.

Last Saturday's Gazette contains his Majesty's order in council, for permitting the free importation into Great-Britain of wheat and wheat flour, by any of his Majesty's subjects from any parts of his dominions in America, from the time limited by an act of the last session, for the importation thereof, viz. the first of August, until the first of February 1768, under the regulations mentioned in two acts of last session relating to the importation of corn.

July 30. We are assured, that his Grace the Duke of Newcastle is absolutely determined to accept of no place whatever in the administration. Some letters from Genoa advise, that all the Nobles who compose the great council, have had circular letters sent them to repair to town, in order to deliberate on speedy measures to be taken with the court of France relative to the island of Corsica. The last letters from Newfoundland mention, that one of his Majesty's sloops on that station, had destroyed 4 stages, which the French had erected on the island of Cape-Breton, as being beyond the limits allowed them for fishery.

August 5. We hear orders are sent down to the outposts for the workmen to be employed one tide extraordinary in each day, in fitting out some men of war and frigates, intended for immediate service. We hear that the Right Hon. Henry Seymour Conway, Esq; will continue Secretary of State for the Northern department.

It is confidently said, that a Bill is prepared for the more effectually preventing unskilful and ignorant pretenders to physic and surgery from practising in this metropolis, by obliging them to take out a licence at a large annual expence, and give proper security for the faithful administration of their medicines.

Monday last an elderly gentleman, aged 75, was married at St. Leonard's, Shoreditch, to his tenth Wife, aged 40.

August 7. There is advice from Corsica, that Paoli has threatened the inhabitants of Bonifacio, that if they do not immediately repair to his army, he will seize all the lands and possessions belonging to them.

August 8. On Monday last an odd accident happened: A Master Chimney-sweeper who lives in Burleigh-street, having several apprentice boys, was employed to sweep the chimnies of a Lady's house at the Court-end of the town; the Lady had the curiosity to stand by, and observing one of the boys to have a fine white set of teeth, asked if he would sell any of them; the poor child willingly consented, and the master asked three guineas for a couple, to pick and choose where she pleased; the bargain was struck, a tooth drawer sent for, who instantly whipped out a couple, the money was paid, and away went Jack and his Master well contented; but before they got home, the Master stopped to buy Jack a pair of silver buckles, with which the poor child was satisfied for his share, and went home and ordered a gallon of beer to regale his family, changed another of the guineas, and received a crooked quarter-guinea in part, which putting into his mouth whilst he reckon'd the rest of his change, it slipped into his throat, where it now remains, and he in St. George's Hospital, past all hopes of recovery, notwithstanding all the efforts of the eminent Surgeons of that place.

St. JOHN, (in Antigua) August 19. We hear from Dominica, that in the late gale of wind the 6th instant, the sloop Kendall, Captain David Ferguson, from South-Carolina, was drove from her anchors, and is now on shore: It is feared that both vessel and cargo will suffer greatly.—We do not hear of any other damage that island sustained by the storm.

BOSTON, September 11. To the PRINTERS of the BOSTON GAZETTE. Please to insert the following in your next.

It is rumoured, and some say with great probability, that a body of troops are ordered to be in readiness at Halifax, to embark to any part on the continent of America, upon the first notice of uneasiness at the novelties we daily expect.—It is as certain that America is also in readiness to defend their liberties, at the risk of every thing else—there can be no hesitation, whenever the alternative shall be slavery or death.—If therefore they wait to know whether we will tamely submit to slavery, the sooner the matter is brought to a crisis the better.—But while we have any opinion of the integrity and good sense of the parliament of G. B. such reports will not easily gain credit.

DETERMINATUS.

NEW-YORK, October 15. On Sunday arrived here from Halifax, his Majesty's Ship the Glasgow, of 20 Guns: In said Ship came Passenger the Right Hon. Lord William Campbell, Governor of said Province, in order to take a Passage for Great-Britain.

There was no Packet for America at Falmouth, when Captain Goddard failed from thence, so that in all Probability 'twill be a considerable Time before any arrives here from England.

With Capt. Goddard came Passengers, a Merchant for Quebec, and Capt. John Montresor, one of his Majesty's established Engineers, and chief Barrack Master of his Majesty's Ordnance for North-America.

Captain Mercier, from the Bay of Honduras in 7 weeks, put in here, being leaky, was bound for the Straights; Captain Rogun, in the Brig Hambrough Packet, left the Bay in Company bound for Hambrough.

From the Gentleman's Magazine for June.

At the court of Common Council, it was unanimously resolved, upon the motion of Mr. Deputy Roffeter, that the freedom of this city be presented, in a gold box, to the Rt Hon. Charles Townshend, Chancellor of the Exchequer, as a tribute justly due to his distinguished talents, so happily employed, and so successfully exerted in the service of his king and country; and as a mark of gratitude for the late instances of his regard to the city of London, and readiness to promote its embellishment, convenience and prosperity; but more especially for his sedulous application and endeavours to promote the trade and manufactures of this kingdom, to lessen the public debt: and with this salutary view, to diminish the expences, and improve the revenues of the state, without weakening the national force, or laying additional burthens upon commerce; for his spirit and resolution in advising the late extraordinary, but necessary exertion of power, in favour of the poor, under the alarming prospect of famine, without attempting to endanger the liberties of his country by exalting the royal prerogative above the law; and lastly, for his well-tempered zeal in support of the undoubted legislative authority of the king and parliament of Great-Britain, over all parts of his majesty's dominions.

you will oblige me by inserting it. H.

ON CONVERSATION.

SOCIAL Converse is a Pleasure,
Much esteem'd by Men of Parts;
It unlocks all Wisdom's Treasure,
And improves the noblest Hearts:
Thro' the pleasing maze of it,
Each communicates his Mind,
Now indulging sprightly Wit;
Now to graver Themes confin'd
Slander, Envy, proud Conceit,
And Affection are its Foes;
Souls ennobl'd, are too great
To be susceptible of those.
But Candour, Honesty, and Truth
And Friendship free of all Disguise,
(The Ornaments of Age and Youth)
Possess the Bosoms of the Wise.
With all these blooming Virtues crown'd,
And Learning's fairest Daughter Sense;
They Joy diffuse and spread around
And Charm the Heart with Eloquence.
May Heav'n, indulgent to me give,
To spend with such each cheerful Hour;
Then happy, happy, shall I live
Regardless of blind Fortune's Pow'r. H.

SUPPLEMENT TO NEW-YORK JOURNAL;

OR, GENERAL

ADVERTISER.

[THURSDAY, October 15, 1767.]

[NUMB. 1293.]

LONDON, July 13.

THEY write from Jamaica, that an engagement had lately happened near Carthagena, between a Bermudian armed sloop and a Spanish guarda costa, in which the latter was beat off with the loss of 30 men.

We hear from Gloucestershire, Worcestershire, Herefordshire and Staffordshire, that they have plenty of fine crops of corn.

On Thursday expired, in great agonies, the wife to a Dealer, at Rotherhithe, who had some days ago, by accident, swallowed a large pin.

A few days ago some jars of fine olives were imported at Bristol from Pensacola, which were esteemed equal to the best Spanish.

The write from Lisbon, that four ringleaders in the late insurrection at Tercera were arrived there in chains, on board a Portuguese frigate of war.

July 14. They write from Paris, that an ingenious mechanic of that city had lately invented and finished a curious snuff-box with chimies in the lid that play five tunes, and will hold half an ounce of snuff.

We hear that Enfield Chace is intended soon to be surveyed, in order to be laid into farms, and to be appropriated as a provision for one of the younger branches of the Royal Family.

July 17. Private letters from Rome insinuate, that there is an intention there of instituting a new Order of Friars upon the ruins of that of the Jesuits, which, it seems, is to be entirely suppressed; it is said, that upon certain conditions they will be permitted to become Members of this new Faternity, but not to possess any higher rank therein than that of simple Brethren, incapable of being advanced to any superiority over the rest till they have undergone a long probation.

They write from Quebec, that a large French ship laden with a variety of European manufactures, has been wreck'd in a gale of wind in the Gulf of St. Laurence.

By the final decision of the great Douglas Cause, not only the title, but a very considerable fortune, we hear, comes to the Hamilton family.

Yesterday Mr. Withrington, a New-England Merchant, coming to town from Uxbridge, was thrown from his horse, near Aston, and killed on the spot.

July 20. It is said the Earl of Chatham will shortly set out for the south of France, and it is reported Mr. Alderman Beckford will accompany him thither, for the re-establishment of their healths.

We are informed that a noble Foreigner lately arrived here, whose ancestors were all natives of Ireland, hath lately sent orders to that kingdom to have a strict search made to find out his poor relations, in order to provide for them; he being immensely rich and without issue.

July 21. It is confidently said that the Earl of Chatham has resigned his place.

A letter from Constantinople, dated June 1, says, "In all appearance the Porte will oblige the Danes to pay a debt of the late Louis Emmanuel Haldimand, Consul of Denmark at Salonica, which debt is claimed by the Jew Mogliano, an inhabitant of that town, who has in his possession bonds of the deceased for the sum of 60,000 crowns, the greatest part of which money belongs to the public treasury."

Edinburgh, July 11. We are told that two Engineers, accompanied by several Gentlemen, are now surveying the grounds between the friths of Forth and Clyde, in order to fix upon the most proper track to carry the large canal, which is proposed to join the two friths.

Kildare, July 4. On Trinity Sunday (a year and a day from the celebration of the nuptial rites being then expired) a young couple in the neighborhood claimed and obtained a fitch of bacon from the Rector of the parish, upon taking the oath prescribed, and producing proper vouchers on the occasion.

West-Stoke in Sussex, July 8. Lord George Lennox has had all the poor of his parish inoculated, and maintained at his own expence in an house he gave for that purpose. They came out this day, and were all new clothed by his Lordship's munificence.

Petersbourg, June 19. We are astonished that some news writers should dare to insinuate that the stay of the Russian troops in Poland gives offence to the Ottoman Porte. This advice is ill-grounded, and merely conjecture.

SINCERITY: A POEM.

SINCERITY, what are thy views?

No more my breast attend:

By thee, alas! we often lose,

But seldom gain, a friend.

No more, with dang'rous zeal, presume

To warn whom you esteem;

Be wise, or, I foresee your doom,

Impertinent you'll seem.

A thousand ills from thee I've found;

A thousand more I fear:

In words like these you should abound?

What bus'ness have you here?

But, if you still must haunt my breast,

To desert we'll repair;

Or see the mansions of the blest;

They know your value there.

ON INNOCENCE.

WHAT'S innocence? A brighter gem,

Than e'er enrich'd a diadem:

A gem that bears a price so high,

As crowns and empires cannot buy.

Yet, in the poorest mortals breast,

This matchless treasure is possess'd:

A treasure, not like other wealth,

Not liable to fraud or stealth:

No foul of this can be bereft,

By open force, or secret theft.

Safe in its cabinet 'twill stay,

'Till by the owner thrown away.

O fatal act! this gem for sin to sell;

'Tis giving life for death, nay heav'n for hell.

Work is done in the neatest Manner, with Care and Expedition. Advertisements of a moderate Length are inserted for Five Shillings, four Weeks, and One Shilling for each Week after.

Huntington, September 20th, 1767.
RUN away from Joseph Lewis of Huntington, in Suffolk County, 1 Negro Man, named Daniel, about 21 Years of Age; and 1 Negro Boy, named Ben about 13 Years old:—Daniel, had on when he went away a light brown coat, brown jacket, leather breeches and check linen shirt; wears his hat with a peak cock, and white button; is about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, a very likely strait limb'd fellow; the boy had on when he went off, a light blue camblet coat, check shirt and row trowsers, is remarkable for having one fore eye, and lost one joint of one of his little fingers:
Whoever takes up and secures both, or either of said negroes, so that their master may have them again, or notice given to Thomas Tucker in New-York, shall be reasonably rewarded, and all charges paid. JOSEPH LEWIS. 90 93

To be sold, at public Vendue,
On Thursday the 15th of October next, between the Hours of 11 and 1 o'Clock, at the Merchant's Coffee-House, in New-York:

A Lot of land, situate in Dutchess County, in a tract known by the name of the Great Nine Partners, and is one fourth part of lot N^o 36 in the grand division, and in lot N^o 3, in the subdivision, containing 873 acres. It is well wooded and water'd, and the whole good wheat land; has a grist and a saw mill near it, with a good road to Poughkeeps-ey and the Fifth-Kill landing. There are four tenants on the lot, two of which have leases that will expire in seven years from May next, the other two are tenants at will, remove-able at three months warning: The conditions of sale are cash only.—Any person having a mind to purchase before the day of public sale, may apply to Mr. Sheffield Howard, merchant in New-York, or to the subscriber at Katts Kill landing, who will give an indisputable title for the same.
Note, there are a number of fruit trees, together with barns and other houses on the lot: the subscriber has also to sell at private sale, 7 or 800 acres of choice good land, part of which is the best of low or intervale land, lying along Schoharie river, which runs nearly thro' the middle of the low land. It is about two and a half miles from the new Batavia settlement, 6 miles of the Breakabee settlement, and within a large new settlement now carrying on, where the subscriber's sons are settled, and a saw and grist mill will be built next year: Whoever has a mind to purchase farms there, may apply as above: An indisputable title will be given, by JOHN DIES. 83 93

PROPOSALS,
For publishing by Subscription, A PERFORMANCE, entitled,
A COMPANION

For the young People of North-America.
Particularly recommended to those within the three Provinces of New-York, New-Jersey, and Pennsylvania.
Divided into Chapters, adapted to every intelligent Capacity, and calculated for the Promotion, and furtherance of Christian Decorum among Families; principally designed to excite a laudable and Christian Emulation among young People, to pursue the Paths which lead to real Religion:
By attempting to discover the Beauties of a virtuous Life, and remove all Objections young Persons can have to being early Religious.

By Ahimaz Harker, Candidate for the Ministry.

CONTENTS.
CHAPTER.
I. Contains an Address to Parents, of every Denomination, masters and Mistresses, and all to whom the Charge and Education of Children are committed.
II. An earnest Persuasive to all young Persons, of what Age, Profession, Circumstance or Rank soever, early to dedicate themselves to the Service of the Lord.
III. Contains an Address to those who are employed in learning and study, and have Time and Opportunity indulged them by their Parents for the Purpose.
IV. To those who may be anxiously desirous of a liberal Education, and use many Efforts to acquire it, yet adverse Fortune will not allow them to succeed.
V. To those who may be so far divested of filial Affection, as to treat their Parents with Disrespect.
VI. To those who have fulfilled the Time of Non-Age, and set out to join the Stage of manly Action, under the Direction of their own Judgment, &c.

There are sundry other Chapters not yet completed, which the Author hopes to have finished by the Time a promising Number of Subscriptions be made.

It will be printed on a good Paper and Letter.

The Price of the Books will be adjusted after they come from the Press, and as reasonable as can be afforded.—They will not exceed Five shillings.

Any who may be disposed to encourage its Publication, by purchasing a Book or Books, will be pleased to send in they Names, which shall be published in the List annexed to the Work, or not, as they shall be pleased to direct.

Subscriptions are now lodged in the Hands of the following Gentlemen, viz. Obadiah Ayres, at Musconetung, in Sullex. William Griffing, Nathaniel Drake, and Dr. Jonathan Horton, at Roxbury. Mr. Thompson, at Mendum. Dr. Samuel Kennedy, jun. at Basking-Ridge. John Younglove, at the Exchange, New-York, and Hugh Gaine's, in Hanover-Square, &c.

This Book is earnestly recommended to all young People;
it being wrote by a young Person, who has made it much of his Study for some Years past, to know the different modes of Discipline among Families, the Dispositions and Tendencies of young Minds. All which he endeavours to consider in such a Manner as will both edify and delight. It is hoped Parents who have Children in Care, will not be backward to encourage the Motion.

If any Gentleman should want any Newtown Pippins, or Elopus or Newtown Spitzenburgh apple trees, to send to England, or any other place, I have 500 of a nice size, and they may depend on their being well put into earth with matts; and also all other trees that are to go to any distance where the roots are liable to take damage, shall be put up in the same manner, with no more cost than that of the matts, which will be no more than a halfpenny a tree. Note, that all the above-mentioned trees, are Two shillings each, except the mazarine and marilla cherries, which are One shilling and sixpence each.

If any Gentlemen should want any of the marilla, or common cherry-trees, that are of a small or middle size, they can have them for Sixpence a piece: And if there be any other trees wanting of any sort, and they are to be had, I will get them as reasonable as possible.

Any Gentleman that has a mind for any of the above-mentioned trees and will have them sent to New-York, can have them sent on Tuesday or Friday of every week, as there are two passage-boats that go from this landing to New-York on those days, and may be found at Burling's or Beekman's Slips;

KING'S-COLLEGE, September 24, 1767.
ON monday November the second, at four o'clock in the evening, (God willing) the first part of Doct'r CLOSSY'S Anatomical Lectures, will begin with the usefulness of anatomy; and will proceed to the descriptions of the dry, and fresh bones, with their cartilages, ligaments and membranes, internal structure, uses, motions and diseases, on every Friday and Monday ensuing.
After the first part, the muscling will be exhibited in the adult subject.
The third part contains, the arteries, veins, and nerves in a young subject. And the whole will be concluded with the encephalon, and viscera of the inferior cavities, together with their uses, motions and affections.
Attendance for each course, five pounds, and free after two courses.
To those who see dissections and preparations, ten pounds for each course.
N. B. As this course is revived under the countenance of the president and governors of the college; all possible care will be taken to render it useful, not only to those whose indispensable business it is to understand the human structure, but to gentlemen of other professions and employments. 90
